Quay Tower's brand new Penthouse 2A is the ideal location to hang your hat after a cruise around New York in your boat. Located on Brooklyn Bridge Park, in the heart of prestigious Brooklyn Heights, Quay Tower is moments away from One 15 Brooklyn Marina, one of the most sought-after boat slips in New York City. Yachting enthusiasts are flocking to this new condominium development for its water and skyline views, marina access, and incredible amenities.

Offered at $10 million, Penthouse 2A was recently staged by Cheryl Eisen and her design firm, IMG. California-based modernist AD100 firm Marmol Radziner appointed interiors. This massive four-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bath residence boasts 3,553-square-feet of interior space and views that Instagram dreams are made of.

Enter your private high-speed elevator, which opens directly into the foyer of the Penthouse. The kitchen has a stunning island and table with oak cabinetry and Gaggenau appliances. Showstopping details include leathered-finish White Princess Quartzite countertops, backsplash, and a hood surround, smoked bronze custom hardware. There are multiple spaces for entertaining and a closed kitchen idea for private meals. Basque in private water views from your floor-to-ceiling windows throughout the home.

Penthouse 2A has a massive primary bedroom, separate from the rest of the beds, with a matching pair of walk-in closets and an en-suite bath complete with Alabastro

Rustico travertine marble. There are cast-stone double sinks, a framed medicine cabinet, and radiant heated floors, a must for 2022 living.

A media room is attached to the fourth bedroom with an en-suite bath. All secondary bedrooms have their own closet space and access to full bathrooms.

Steps away from Pier 6, Quay Tower sits on the southern tip of the famous 85-acre Brooklyn Bridge Park. The
